Biography

Natasha is an early career artist at Ernabella. Her uncle is Pepai Carroll, a senior artist at the art centre.

Natasha was born in a creek bed in Hermannsburg, NT, not far from Alice Springs. She often tells stories of going fishing and swimming in Hermannsburg. She moved to Ernabella as a young adult to be closer to family.

Natasha is a dedicated Aboriginal Arts Workers at Ernabella Arts. Natasha always comes to work with a smile on her face.

Natasha's narrative painting depicts community life with unique, quirky detail. She often paints on number plates and creates troopy-shaped ceramic wall pieces. Natasha's work is often on show at Talapi gallery in Alice Springs.
